ABSTRACT

This report presents the results of the annual survey of geographic origins or permanent residence of first-time credit-course students attending institutions of the State University of New York during the 1975 fall term. It is the companion report to "Geographic Origins of Students, Fall 1975," which provides permanent residence data for all credit-course students. This report includes summary and individual institutional data, as well as eight tables of basic data on the permanent residence of State University students in relation to the four coordinating areas of New York State. However, the medical and health sciences centers and College at Utica/Rome are not included because they did not have any first-time students. The eight community colleges are not included, because they are no longer a part of the State University of New York. (Author/MSE)

PREFACE

This report presents the results of the annual survey of geographic origins or permanent residence of first-time credit course students attending institutions of the State University of New York during the 1975 fall term. It is the companion report to Geographic Origins of Students, Fall 1975 which provides permanent residence data for all credit course students. These reports comprise a significant data resource for studies of the residence and migration of college and university students. The state-wide nature of the student bodies of State University institutions has led to a deep interest in these data for enrollment projecting, for policy planning, and for other administrative purposes.

Although most studies of the geographic origins of college students suffer the problem of a valid definition of "residence", first-time student studies are probably quite free of the customary variables affecting definitional inconsistency. First-time students have never been to a college previous to the term in which they are reported. Most first-time students are minors under 21 years of age, single, living at home when applying, and then attending full-time — factors likely to change as the students grow older, marry and participate concurrently in non-student occupations which may affect their domicile.

This report includes summary and individual institutional data, as well as eight tables of basic data on the permanent residence of State University students in relation to the four coordinating areas of New York State. However, because this report is confined to the enrollments and permanent residence of first-time undergraduate students, the following SUNY institutions which did not have any first-time students are not included: College at Utica/Rome, Buffalo Health Sciences Center, Downstate Medical Center, Stony Brook Health Sciences Center, College of Optometry and the College of Veterinary Medicine. Also excluded from this report are the eight Community Colleges under the sponsorship of the New York City Board of Higher Education, which were no longer a part of the State University of New York as of July 1, 1975.

No study of this magnitude could have been conducted or completed without the extensive cooperation of campus personnel and of those in the Central Staff Office of Institutional Research. Persons who will use this document will be grateful for that effort. We would give serious consideration to any recommendations for future studies or reports of this type.

SUMMARY OF DATA

In the Fall of 1975, 99,639 first-time students enrolled in institutions of the State University of New York. The reader is cautioned regarding year-to-year comparisons, as data for Fall 1975 does not include the eight Community Colleges under the sponsorship of the New York City Board of Higher Education, because these institutions were no longer a part of the State University of New York as of July 1, 1975. The following table was constructed to facilitate such year-to-year comparisons.

Comparison of Enrollment of First-time Students
State University of New York, Fall 1971 through Fall 1975

Fall	First-time enrollment
	Total	NYCBHECC[a]	SUNY excluding NYCBHECC[a]
1975	99,639	-	99,639
1974	112,494	20,405	92,089
1973	108,137	18,085	90,052
1972	104,134	18,121	86,013
1971	102,480	20,311	82,169

Having excluded first-time enrollment at the Community Colleges under the sponsorship of the New York City Board of Higher Education for these years, year-to-year comparisons of the number of first-time students show increases over the past five years.

Fall	% change in number of first-time students
1974-1975	+ 8.2
1973-1974	+ 2.3
1972-1973	+ 4.7
1971-1972	+ 4.7

[a] Community Colleges under the sponsorship of the New York City Board of Higher Education.

However, the percent of total enrollment reported as first-time students has shown a decline for the past three years.

1971	284,220[a]	82,169[a]	28.9

The percent of first-time students reported as New York State residents has remained relatively constant over the past five years.

These New York State residents are found in different concentrations at different types of institutions. The table which follows arrays these data by institution type within the State University of New York system.
